- If money is improperly deposited it may be withdrawn
- MARAD must alert IRS and allow for a 30 day period in which the IRS can object or consent
- No response equals consent to withdraw.

CRF ONGOING REQUIREMEENTS

REPORTING and ONGOING REQUIREMENTS

- . MARAD approves withdrawals from the CRF which are associated with the sale of a vessel or vessels. (Note: the withdrawal requests are sent in a form indicating a vessel was sold and the company would like to be reimbursed for that sale)
- 2. MARAD receives requests from companies to add a vessel or vessels to their fleet in the CRF

- 1) Can a foreign operator of a vessel access the CRF program? Yes.
- 2) What is the timing deposit requirement for CRF?

Deposits into the CRF must be made within 60 days after receipt by the taxpayer of amounts representing proceeds of the sale or indemnification for loss of a vessel.

3) Is there a set application form to be submitted to MARAD?

Regulation 46 CRF Part 287 includes a form of the application. The form is available on the CRF website.

4) Is there an application deadline for CRF?

An application must be submitted within 90 days of sale of a vessel with the required fee.

5) Is there an agreement signed by company and MARAD following internal approval?

No. MARAD issues an Order to the company and bank along with a signature card that is signed by MARAD and kept in the company's folder for cases of incoming disbursements that need signatures for release of their funds for the sale of a vessel or vessels.

6) What are the ongoing reporting requirements or obligations to MARAD, if any?

There is no ongoing reporting requirements. However, MARAD must approve all deposits and withdrawals from any CRF accounts. The withdrawal requests are sent in a specific form with required documentation demonstrating a vessel was purchased and the account holder would like to be reimbursed.
