REVOKES
MAO 130-1,
dated 7/17/87

NO.
130-1

EFFECTIVE DATE
April 3, 1992

SUBJECT

REDELEGATION OF AUTHORITIES BY THE CENTRAL REGION DIRECTOR

Section 1. General:

1.01 Maritime Administrative Orders 100-1 and 100-2, and other directives on specific matters in the Manual of Orders establish the functions and authorities of the Region Director and give the Region Director authority to redelegate such authorities and to prescribe necessary limitations, restrictions, and conditions on the exercise of such authorities.

1.02 The authorities set forth in section 3 of this order, which can be redelegated, are hereby redelegated to designated officials. These officials may, in turn, redelegate their authorities.

Section 2. Organization:

The exhibit to this order describes the organization structure of the Central Region.

Section 3. Redelegation of Authorities:

3.01 The Immediate Office of the Central Region Director includes the personnel authorized to exercise all of the authorities of the Region Director with respect to the administrative services and property functions assigned by the Manual of Orders and specifically section 2.04 of Maritime Administrative Order 100-2.

3.02 Region Finance Office. The Region Finance Officer is authorized to exercise all of the authorities of the Region Director with respect to the finance functions assigned by the Manual of Orders, and specifically section 2.06 of Maritime Administrative Order 100-2.

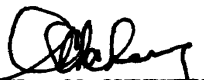

3.03 Region Marketing Offices. The Region Marketing Representatives are authorized to exercise all of the authorities of the Region Director with respect to the market promotion and national cargo and compliance functions, assigned by the Manual of Orders.

3.04 Region Port and Intermodal Office. The Region Port and Intermodal Representative is authorized to exercise all of the authorities of the Region Director with respect to the port and intermodal development functions assigned by the Manual of Orders.

3.05 Region Acquisition Office. The Region Acquisition Officer is authorized to exercise all of the authorities of the Region Director with respect to the contracting and purchasing functions assigned by the Manual of Orders, and specifically section 2.05 of Maritime Administrative Order 100-2, subject to individual contracting officers' warrants.

3.06 Region Ship Operations and Maintenance Office. The Region Ship Operations and Maintenance Officer is authorized to exercise all of the authorities of the Region Director with respect to the ship operations, maintenance and repair, oversight of the reserve fleet, and other ship management functions assigned by the Manual of Orders, and specifically sections 2.01 and 2.02 of Maritime Administrative Order 100-2.

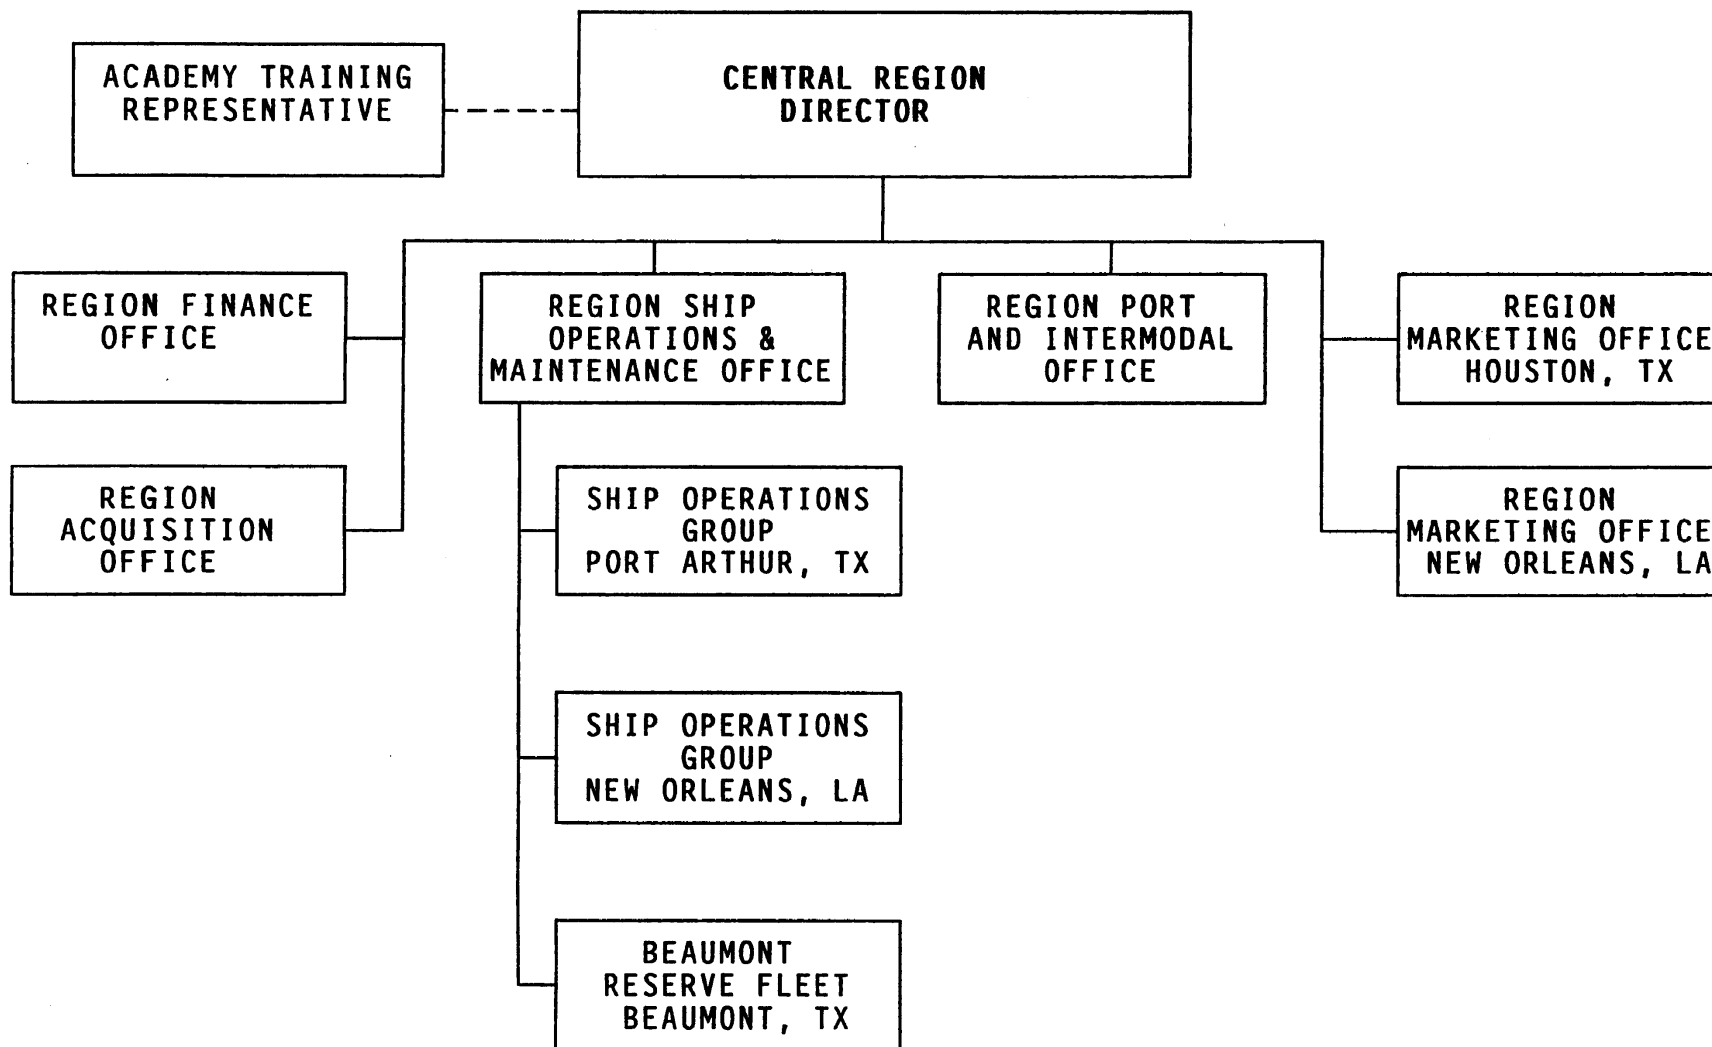

- 1 The Heads, Region Ship Operations Groups, within their respective areas, are authorized to exercise all of the authorities of the Region Ship Operations and Maintenance Officer with respect to the ship operations, maintenance and repair, and other ship management functions assigned by the Manual of Orders except for the reserve fleet functions.
- 2 The Superintendent, Beaumont Reserve Fleet, is authorized to exercise all of the authorities of the Region Ship Operations and Maintenance Officer with respect to the reserve fleet functions assigned by the Manual of Orders.
